

Terms and Conditions

Please read these terms and conditions carefully. These conditions, together with our Privacy Notice and the written information we brought to your attention before we confirmed your booking, set out the terms and conditions of the contract between you and RSD Travel Limited and show your and our contractual commitments to each other. RSD Travel Limited is a company registered in England and Wales with company number 07507940 and has its business address at RSD Travel Ltd., 2nd Floor Suite, Cuttlemill Farmhouse, Cuttlemill Business Park, Watling Street, Towcester NN12 6LF, United Kingdom.

Your Holiday Contract

- 1.1 When you make your booking you agree that you have authority to accept and do accept on behalf of yourself and each person named in your booking, the terms of these Booking Conditions. The person making the booking ("the party leader") must be at least 18 years of age and authorised to do so by all persons named in the booking and the parent or guardian of all party members under the age of 18 years, when the booking is made. The party leader on behalf of themselves and each member of the party consents to the use of information in accordance with our privacy policy.
- 1.2 The party leader is responsible for making all payments due to us under the booking. All party members named within the booking are jointly and severally liable for all payments due under the booking.
- 1.3 A contract will exist as soon as we issue a booking confirmation invoice to the party leader. The contract is made in the terms of these booking conditions, which are governed by English law and the jurisdiction of the English Courts. You may choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so and you are resident in Scotland or Northern Ireland.
- 1.4 Once you have received your booking confirmation invoice please check this carefully and all other documents we have sent to you. If any of the information contained within any of these documents is incorrect or incomplete, please notify us immediately in writing as it may not be possible to make later changes to it. We cannot accept any liability if we are not notified of any inaccuracies within 7 days of issue of the booking confirmation invoice to you.
- 1.5 We reserve the right to refuse to accept bookings in our absolute discretion without stating the reason for doing so.
- 1.6 We are unable to guarantee that customers whose names do not appear in the same booking confirmation invoice will be included within the same group on any participating tour. Any request to be included in the same group or tour as other customers who do not appear on the booking confirmation invoice will be treated as a special request and must be notified to us at the time of booking. We will do our best to accommodate this request but are unable to accept bookings which are conditional upon it being met and any failure to do so will not be a breach of contract on our part. Group travel is defined as a travel booking request for a group of seven (7) persons or more participating in the same trip as a single group. Group booking requests must be submitted to the following address: groups@rsd-travel.co.uk. Our group conditions apply.
- 1.7 The price of your booking is calculated in pounds sterling (GBP) and all payments are made in pounds sterling. All payments are in pounds sterling.

Your contract will be governed by English law and any disputes will be dealt with in the courts of England and Wales. If you live in Northern Ireland or Scotland, the courts of Northern Ireland or Scotland (as appropriate), can, if you so wish, deal with any disputes and Northern Irish or Scottish law shall then apply (as applicable). When we refer to your Holiday in these conditions, except where otherwise stated, we mean the accommodation, transport and other holiday services (excluding Resortbooked Excursions, see below) that you book in the UK with us as a combined package governed by the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018.

Excursions

Excursions include, but are not restricted to, any sightseeing trips, gigs, events or other tours attended in resort for which additional payment is required. Excursions can either be booked and/or paid for at the resort ("Resort-booked Excursions") or pre-booked and paid for when you book your Holiday ("Pre-booked Excursions"). All excursions are supplied by third party suppliers and are subject to the clause titled "Suppliers' Conditions" below. We accept, subject to the clauses entitled "Suppliers' Conditions" and "Our Liability to You" below, responsibility for Pre-booked Excursions. However, Resort-booked Excursions do not form part of your Holiday and are not governed by the Regulations. We do not have any responsibility or liability whatsoever for anything which may go wrong on a Resort-booked Excursion. We, our employees agents or suppliers are acting, depending upon the actual Resort-booked Excursion, either as agents for the relevant Resort-booked Excursion supplier or as agent for you. In any event, the contract for any Resort- booked Excursion is between you and the Resort-booked Excursion provider. It is your responsibility to note carefully any conditions of contract contained in any Resort-booked Excursion, literature, ticket or receipt you are given. For Resort-booked Excursions you may be subject to the laws of the country in which you take your excursion and may be required to bring any disputes or claims before the Courts of that country, too. Please note that the provisions of this clause shall not be affected by the presence of any of our employees, agents or suppliers on any Resort-booked Excursion.

Information and Prices

We publish brochure and website information many months in advance and, as far as we know, all information is correct at the time of publication. However, things may still change after publication and we check regularly to see if we need to update or correct any information or prices. If there are any significant information changes or we find any mistakes, we will put details on our computer reservation system or website as soon as possible. It is your responsibility to check the latest information at the time of booking.

Late Holiday Bookings

Certain bookings made within 80 days of departure will be regarded as 'Late Holiday' bookings. You will be told at the time of booking whether or not the booking you seek to make is a normal booking or a 'Late Holiday' booking, and the difference between the two. It will then be your choice as to how you wish to proceed. Please be aware that 'Late Holiday' bookings always require payment of the full price at the time of booking (whenever that may be). 'Late Holiday' bookings may either be booked through promotional publications or from a brochure or on the website. Accommodation may either be named at the time of booking or allocated when you arrive at your destination. 'Late Holiday' bookings are not always cheaper than the prices in the brochure, as prices are set according to demand. Additional terms and conditions may apply for 'Late Holiday' bookings and, if so, these will be detailed on our reservation system or in any specific literature relating to such Late Holiday booking or on our website. Not all services and facilities as advertised on our website or in any brochure will be available for 'Late Holiday' bookings. Please check with us or check on the website carefully before booking.

Surcharges – Price Increases after Booking

Changes in transportation costs, including the cost of fuel, dues, taxes or fees chargeable for services such as landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports and airports and exchange rates mean that the price of your Holiday may change after you have booked. However there will be no change within 20 days of your departure.

If this means that you have to pay an increase of more than 8% of the price of your Holiday (excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges), you will have the option of accepting a change to another holiday if we are able to offer one (if this is of equivalent or higher quality, you will not have to pay more but, if it is of lower quality, you will be refunded the difference in price), or cancelling and receiving a full refund of all monies paid, except for any amendment charges. We will consider an appropriate refund of insurance premiums paid if you can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy. Should you decide to cancel for this reason, you must exercise your right to do so within 14 days from the date we send to you confirmation of the increase. Should the price of your Holiday go down because of the changes mentioned above, then any refund due will be paid to you. However, please note that travel arrangements for your Holiday are not always purchased in local currency and some apparent changes have no impact on the price of your travel due to contractual and other protection in place.

Your Booking

Before you book, please discuss your choice of resort, accommodation and transport with our reservations staff to make sure it will be suitable for you and the people you will be travelling with. The person who signs the booking form or completes the booking online or by telephone is the 'lead name'. He or she must be 18 years of age or over at the time of booking. If you are under 18 at the time of booking and wish to travel without an adult accompanying you, we will only allow you to travel subject to the following conditions. If at the time of departure you are 16 or 17 or are 17 when travelling on an "Escapades" branded holiday, you must provide written authority from your parent or legal guardian who must sign the booking form. We reserve the right to require the parent/guardian to produce a copy of their passport showing their name and signature or such other identification evidence as we may reasonably require. Written permission from a parent/ guardian cannot be accepted unless their signature can be verified. On signing the booking form, a contract between your parent/guardian and us is in place. An adult of 18 years or over must accompany you if you are under 16 years of age on your departure date. The lead name is responsible for payment of the total booking price, including any insurance premiums and subsequent cancellation or amendment charges that may be payable. He or she also agrees to provide accurate and full information to the remainder of the travelling party in relation to the booking, including any changes thereto and confirms that all the other members of the party, including any that may be added at a later date, agree to be bound by these conditions, and all other information in the relevant brochure and on our websites (as applicable).

When you book your Holiday, you agree to pay us either:

- A deposit at the time of booking followed by the remaining balance when due. You will be advised of the current deposit payable at the time of booking. The remaining balance is due 80 days before your travel date; or
- The full cost of the Holiday if you book a Late Holiday (see 'Late Holiday Bookings' above for definition), or, if it is 80 days or less before you go.

If you have a special request for anything that is not automatically part of your Holiday, please check when you book your Holiday and we will pass this information on to the suppliers we work with. Any note of your request from us simply confirms we have received it and does not guarantee that we, or the relevant supplier, can meet with your request. Where possible they will try to help you, but we cannot guarantee any request unless we expressly confirm in writing that the request will be met. We must emphasise that verbal confirmations of special requests cannot be taken as a guarantee that they will be met e.g. special meal types on flights. We will not pay compensation for failing to meet a special request that we have not confirmed separately in writing.

Flight times stated at the time of booking may be subject to change. Also, additional stopovers may be added to your flight. If these changes occur, we do not accept any responsibility for flight connections.

Once you have booked, we will issue an ATOL Certificate and/or a confirmation invoice setting out the Holiday details and price. The booking takes place and the contract is made when we issue the ATOL Certificate and/or confirmation invoice. Please check the details on your ATOL Certificate and/or invoice carefully. If you have any questions, or anything does not appear to be right, you must contact our reservations staff or your travel agent immediately. You must pay particular attention to the date your final payment is due as we may cancel your Holiday if you do not make your final payment on time. If we do this, we will keep your deposit. If we extend the period for you to pay the final payment at your request, and you still fail to pay or cancel your booking, the cancellation charges will be increased in accordance with the scale and 'Exception' set out in the section titled 'Cancellation By You'.

If you fail to make payment of any sums when due then, without prejudice to our rights to cancel your booking and/or impose cancellation charges, we reserve the right to charge a further £2 administration fee for every reminder that we send to you requiring payment and, for the avoidance of doubt, this administration fee will be in addition to any other charges due us in accordance to the section "Cancellation by You", for example if we agree to extend the due date for any payment due to us.

Disabilities and Medical Conditions

You must provide us with full details of any existing medical condition or disability that may affect your travel arrangements (including, in particular, any accommodation requirements) at the time of your booking. If in our reasonable opinion your chosen travel arrangements are not suitable for your medical problem or disability or you are not travelling with someone who can provide all assistance you may reasonably require, we have the right to refuse to accept the booking. If you do not give us full details of your medical problem including any allergies and dietary requirements or disability we can also cancel the booking when we find out full details if in our reasonable opinion, the travel arrangements are not suitable or you are not travelling with someone who can provide all assistance reasonably required. If we cancel your booking as a result of this, the cancellation charges set out in the section entitled "Cancellation By You" will apply.

Before You Travel – Travel Insurance

It is a condition of your booking with us that you and all members of your party including all infants are adequately insured on your holiday and are covered by an insurance policy for your trip. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance policy you purchase is suitable, covers the requirements of yourself and all members of your party and is adequate for your needs and travel arrangements, including any particular health requirements you may have. We strongly advise that you take out a policy of insurance to cover you and any member of your party against the cost of cancellation by you, the cost of assistance (including repatriation), in the event of accident or illness, lost baggage or money together with other expenses that may arise. You should ensure such insurance covers all and any activities you have booked either as part of or in addition to your holiday. Please be aware that if you transfer your holiday, you will not be able to transfer your insurance and the new traveller must have their own insurance cover in accordance with these conditions.

Suppliers' Conditions

Our third party suppliers have their own booking conditions and conditions of carriage, and you will be bound by these, so far as the relevant supplier is concerned. Our suppliers' conditions will also apply to your contract with us, and in the event of any conflict between the suppliers' conditions and our conditions, the suppliers' conditions will prevail, save to the extent that any term in the suppliers' conditions is deemed to be invalid or unenforceable, in which event our conditions will prevail. Some of our suppliers' conditions may limit or exclude liability on the part of the relevant supplier, and, by virtue of their application to your contract with us, may also limit or exclude our liability to you, and they are often subject to international conventions. You can obtain copies of the relevant conditions from us upon request.

Changes You Make Before Travel

If you want to change your Holiday arrangements in any way, we will try to help you, although we cannot guarantee that we will always be able to do this as changes are subject to availability at the time. Please note that typically changes to scheduled flight tickets are very restrictive. Where we can make a change, we will charge for any additional services, facilities, or other items changed, at the price which applies on the day the change is made. In addition, we will also apply charges for each person on the booking and for each item you want to change as shown in the table below. Any booking discount you may have received at the time the original booking was made may be altered or reduced whenever changes are made. If you have paid supplements for accommodation and the number of people in your accommodation changes, you may have to pay extra and may lose any free or reduced infant and child places or any free group places. Please note that any change to your departure date, airport, transport, destination, accommodation, or length of stay has to apply to all members of your booking.

You may not change a holiday chosen from our brochures/websites to special offer holiday such as those featured in promotional publications, or to a 'Late Holiday' (see section 'Late Holiday Bookings'), without incurring cancellation charges. Such a change would necessitate the cancellation of your existing arrangements subject to our cancellation charges shown and the re-booking of new arrangements at the price applying on the day the booking is made. We will not be able to amend the details of a 'Late Holiday' (see section 'Late Holiday Bookings' for definition), unless you are prevented from proceeding with your Late Holiday for reasons beyond your control, and not simply due to a change of mind. Cancellation charges apply to all amendments to holidays of these types. See section 'Cancellation by You' for more information.

Note: the transport provider may impose additional charges of up to 100% of the ticket cost; any such charges will be in addition to the amendment fees listed above – see the Exception in the section "Cancellation By You" below.

If you cancel any travel insurance, your premium may not be refunded, as cover under the policy will already have begun.

If you or any member of your party is prevented from travelling, that person may transfer their place to someone else subject to the following conditions:

1. That person is introduced by you and satisfies each and all of the conditions applicable to the booked holiday;
2. We are notified in writing of the request for transfer not later than 7 days before departure;
3. You pay the outstanding balance payment, the amendment fee of £50.00 per person for transferring from us with any additional fees, charges and other costs which arise from the transfer; and
4. The Transferee agrees to these booking conditions, all of the terms of the Contract between us:
 - Charges amounting to the full cost of the transferred flight and a replacement flight will be imposed in the event of the transfer.
 - You and the Transferee will remain jointly and severally liable for the payment of all sums.
 - If you are unable to find a replacement, the cancellation charges set out below will apply in order to cover our estimated costs. Otherwise, no refunds will be given to passengers not travelling or for any unused service.

Cancellation by You

The lead name on the booking must give notice to cancel in writing to the correspondence address as stated on the invoice. The charges shown below apply from the date we receive your written notice of cancellation at our offices.

In order to cover our expected losses from the cancellation of the booking there is a set scale of charges, which you must pay if you or anyone travelling with you cancels. Also note the 'Exception' described below which may apply in addition to the scale of charges.

Time We Receive Your Notice To Cancel Before Departure	Cancellation Charge (excluding 'Late Holiday' Bookings)	Cancellation Charge for 'Late Holiday' Bookings

If any member of the booking cancels and you cannot fill that person's place, you may have to pay additional supplements for your accommodation. For example, you may have to pay single or under-occupancy supplements. If you do cancel, you must still pay any insurance premiums and amendment charges, which arose before the cancellation, and any deposits paid for any pre-booked items or services.

Cancellation By You Due to Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstances

You have the right to cancel your Holiday before departure without paying a cancellation charge in the event of “unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances” occurring at your Holiday destination or its immediate vicinity and which significantly affects the performance of the Holiday or which significantly affects transport arrangements to the destination. In these circumstances, we shall provide you with a full refund of the monies you have paid but we will not be liable to pay you any compensation. For the purposes of this clause, examples of “unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances” include warfare, acts of terrorism, significant risks to human health such as the outbreak of serious disease at the travel destination or natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes or weather conditions which make it impossible to travel safely to your destination.

Exception

Cancellation of certain transport arrangements can result in up to 100% cancellation charges regardless of the notice period given to us. In respect of scheduled airline tickets, 100% cancellation charges will almost certainly apply. We reserve the right to pass on these charges, which will apply to the transport element of your Holiday and the cancellation charges in the scale above will apply to the other elements of your Holiday (e.g. accommodation, optional extras). Similarly, name changes (including initial changes), destination and date changes can be treated by such suppliers as a cancellation and rebooking, regardless of the period of notice given to us. If the supplier treats the change as a cancellation and rebooking we will pass on to you the cost imposed by the supplier, which could be up to 100% of the transport element of your booking and you must also pay the charge listed in the section “Changes You Make Before You Travel” above. Also note that the transport provider may refuse to issue replacement tickets for lost or stolen tickets and you may need to purchase new tickets. The cost of the new ticket may be greater than the cost of the original ticket.

Changes Made By Us Before Travel

From time to time we may have to change details of the Holiday you have booked. If any change will have a significant effect on your Holiday, we will tell you about it before your Holiday if there is sufficient time. Changes we will tell you about include:

- Change of your UK departure airport
- Significant change of your destination
- A change of more than 12 hours to the time you leave the UK or your destination
- If we downgrade your accommodation by one full ‘Tour Operator’ rating or
- If the swimming pool will not be available for an extended period during your Holiday and no alternative pool is available either at the property or nearby.

If you do not want to accept a significant change, which we will tell you about before you depart, we will, if we are able to do so, offer you an alternative holiday of equivalent or closely similar standard and price at no extra cost, or a less expensive holiday, in which case we will refund the difference in price. If you do not wish to take the alternative we offer you, you can choose a different holiday offered for sale by us and pay, or receive a refund of, any price difference. Or, if you prefer, you can cancel your Holiday and receive a full refund of any money you have paid to us, except for any amendment charges. We will consider an appropriate refund of insurance premiums paid if you can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy.

Unless the change is as a result of circumstances listed in the paragraph below headed ‘Circumstances Beyond our Control’, we will pay you compensation as shown in the table below. If you accept the significant change or opt to go on a different holiday that we have on offer, you will receive compensation as per Option 1 in the table below. If you reject the significant change and cancel your booking, you will receive compensation as per Option 2. The amounts in the table are by way of guideline only and may in appropriate circumstances be increased.

Period of Notice We Give to You Before Departure	Compensation to Each Full Fare Passenger
	Option 1	Option 2
71+ Days	£0	£0
70-43 Days	£10	£5
42-29 Days	£20	£10
28-15 Days	£30	£15
14-0 Days	£40	£25

Compensation payments relating to a child place for which you have paid a child price are half the amounts shown (up to half the child price paid). There are no compensation payments payable to those travelling on ‘free child places’, ‘free group places’ or infants.

Minor Changes By Us Before You Travel

Any change, which is not deemed to be significant as outlined in the section titled ‘Changes Made By Us Before Travel’, will be classed as a minor change. We will endeavour to tell you about a minor change before you travel, however, we will not pay compensation as a result of this change. The flights we offer are operated by a range of scheduled or charter airlines, using wide or narrow body jet aircraft. We are required to inform you of the identity of the airline operating your flight. However, in occasions it may not be possible at the time of booking to specify the airline or type of aircraft and we will provide the information as soon as it is available. In occasions, it will be necessary to change the operating airline and, as a consequence, flight times may vary. We reserve the right to change operating airlines or aircraft types at any time and those types of changes will not constitute a major change. We will strive to notify you of any alterations as soon as possible, however if there is a last minute alteration, this will be notified to you in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate.

Circumstances Beyond Our Control

Except for when stated differently in these conditions, we cannot pay any compensation, reimburse expenses, or cover losses for any amount or otherwise accept responsibility if, as a result of circumstances beyond our control, we have to change your Holiday after booking, or we, or our suppliers, cannot supply your Holiday, as we, or they, had agreed, or you suffer any loss or damage of any description. When we refer to circumstances beyond our control, we mean any event that we, or the supplier in question, could not foresee or avoid, even after taking all reasonable care. Such circumstances will usually include, but are not limited to, war, threat of war, airport closures, epidemic, natural or nuclear disaster, terrorist activity, civil unrest, industrial dispute, bad weather (actual or threatened), change to Foreign Office advice to advise against travel to destination and significant building work ongoing outside of your accommodation (such as resort development).

Changes Made After Travel

If, after your departure, a significant part of your pre-booked Holiday arrangements cannot be provided, you will be offered a suitable alternative if possible. If appropriate, we will also pay you compensation in accordance with the table in the section titled ‘Changes Made By Us Before Travel’ unless the reason for the change is due to circumstances beyond our control (see section titled ‘Circumstances Beyond Our Control’). If it is not possible to offer you a suitable alternative or, for good reasons, you do not accept the alternative arrangements, you will have the right to cancel your booking. In this event, you will have the right to be returned by the same means of transport to your original departure point at no extra cost provided that transport is available. This does not impose an obligation on us to make specific transport arrangements for you if none are available.

Flight Delays

Delays sometimes occur. We work closely with the airlines and overseas offices to make sure any delay is as short as possible. When a delay occurs we will try to make sure refreshments or meals are provided when appropriate. We will not do this ourselves as such arrangements for this will normally be the responsibility of the airline. For more information on flight delays see the section titled ‘Our Liability to You’. If you have purchased our recommended travel insurance, or a comparable policy, you should be covered for long delays.

Cancellation by Us

We can cancel your Holiday and any other holiday we operate. On rare occasions, we may need to cancel your Holiday if there is insufficient demand for your particular Holiday. If we have to cancel your Holiday for any particular reason, we will tell you as soon as is reasonably possible. In these circumstances, we will, if we are able to do so, offer you an alternative holiday of equivalent or closely similar standard and price at no extra cost, or a less expensive holiday, in which case we will refund the difference in price. If you do not wish to take the alternative we offer you, you can choose another offered for sale by us and pay, or receive a full refund of, any price difference. Or, if you prefer, you can receive a full refund of any money you have paid to us, except for any amendment charges. We will consider an appropriate refund of insurance premiums paid if you can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy. However, we will not cancel your Holiday within 10 weeks of departure except if we are forced to do so because of unusual circumstances we could not have foreseen where we could not avoid the results of those circumstances even after taking all reasonable care (see ‘Circumstances Beyond Our Control’ above). No compensation will be payable in these circumstances, whenever they happen, and we will only have to offer you the above choices. We reserve the right to cancel your holiday if the outstanding balance is not paid within the due date (80 days before your travel date). If you fail to make payment of any sums when due then, without prejudice to our rights to cancel your booking and/or impose cancellation charges, we reserve the right to charge a further £2 administration fee for every reminder that we send to you requiring payment and, for the avoidance of doubt, this administration fee will be in addition to any other charges due us in accordance to the section “Cancellation by You”, for example if we agree to extend the due date for any payment due to us. Where we are constrained to cancel your Holiday by virtue of the number of persons enrolled for the Package being smaller than the minimum number stated in the booking, we will not cancel your Holiday any later than the number of days specified below from the date your Holiday is due to commence:

- Trips lasting more than 6 days – no later than 20 days before departure.
- Trips lasting between 2 and 6 days – no later than 7 days before departure.
- Trips lasting less than 2 days – no less than 48 hours before departure.

Brochure and Website Accuracy

Sometimes facilities described in our brochures/websites will be withdrawn for reasons such as maintenance, bad weather or lack of demand from guests. If possible, we will tell you about the withdrawal of any significant facility as soon as possible. Outside the peak season it is common for facilities and services to be less widely available, both in your accommodation and holiday resort/destination generally. Beach activities such as water-skiing and windsurfing are normally managed by independent local operators and we have no control over their availability or prices. There may be a charge for some facilities at your accommodation, for example, TVs, safety deposit boxes, sun-loungers, parasols, tennis courts, pool tables and air-conditioning. In some places during high season (and even at other times), there is a possibility you will be disturbed by noise from less considerate groups, so please bear this in mind when choosing your resort and accommodation. The transfer times we quote for travel between airport and resort are approximate and, depending on circumstances, the journey time to your own chosen property may be longer. If we know about significant building work or other noise likely to affect your travel arrangements we aim to tell you before you leave. We cannot provide this advice on ‘Late Holiday’ bookings where accommodation is not specified before you arrive at your destination (see also ‘Circumstances Beyond Our Control’).

Our Liability To You

(i) Our obligations, and those of our suppliers providing any service or facility involved in any of your Holiday, are to take reasonable skill and care to arrange for the provision of such services and facilities and, where we or our supplier is actually providing the service or facility, to provide them with reasonable skill and care. Compliance with any applicable regulatory requirements (such as, for example, those of the Civil Aviation Authority) will be proper performance of our, and our suppliers', obligations. You must show that reasonable skill and care has not been used if you wish to make any claim.

(ii) For claims which do not involve death or personal injury, we accept liability, subject to paragraph (i) above and (v) below, should any part of your Holiday not be as described in the relevant brochure, on our websites or elsewhere by us (as applicable to your method of booking) before you leave the UK. If we have liability, we will, subject to paragraphs (iii), (vi) and (vii) below, pay you reasonable compensation. However, the maximum we will pay you in any circumstances is three times the price of the Holiday. This maximum will only be payable when every aspect of your Holiday has gone wrong and you have not received any benefit from your Holiday. Any sums received by you from suppliers will be deducted from any sum paid to you as compensation by us.

(iii) Where a flight ticket is downgraded or a flight cancelled, delayed, or boarding is denied by any carrier in circumstances which would entitle you to compensation under the Denied Boarding Regulations 2004, then you are obliged to claim the appropriate sums pursuant to those Regulations from the carrier. Any sums received by you in this respect constitute the full amount of your entitlement to compensation for all matters flowing from the carrier's actions and which fall within the scope of the Denied Boarding Regulations. If, for any reason, you do not claim against the carrier and make a claim for compensation from us, you must, at the time of payment of any compensation to you, make a complete assignment to us of the rights you have against the carrier in relation to the claim that gives rise to that compensation payment.

(iv) For claims which involve death or personal injury as a result of an activity forming part of your Holiday (excluding Resort-booked Excursions, see section titled 'Excursions'), we have liability subject to paragraph (i) above and (v) below. If we accept liability, we will, subject to paragraphs (vi), (vii) and (viii) below, pay you reasonable compensation.

(v) We accept liability in accordance with paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iv) above and subject to paragraphs (vi), (vii) and (viii) below except where the cause of the failure in your Holiday or any death or personal injury you may suffer is not due to any fault on our part or that of our employees, agents or suppliers because it is either attributable to you, or attributable to someone unconnected with the Holiday and is unforeseeable or unavoidable; or because the failure is due to unusual or unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all due care had been exercised, or due to an event which neither we, nor our employees, agents or suppliers could have foreseen or forestalled.

(vi) If any international convention applies to or governs any of the services or facilities included in your Holiday arranged or provided by us, or provided by any of our suppliers, and you make a claim against us of any nature arising out of death, injury, loss or damage suffered during or as a result of the provision of those services or facilities, our liability to pay you compensation and/or the amount (if any) of compensation payable to you by us will be limited in accordance with and/or in an identical manner to that provided for by the international convention concerned (in each case including in respect of the conditions of liability, the time for bringing any claim and the type and amount of any damages that can be awarded). International Conventions which may apply include: in respect of international air travel, the Warsaw Convention 1929 (including as amended by the Hague Protocol of 1955 and by any of the additional Montreal Protocol of 1975) or the Montreal Convention 1999; in respect of rail travel, the COTIF Convention concerning International Carriage by Rail 1980 (as amended); in respect of carriage by sea, the Athens Convention 1974; in respect of carriage by road, the Geneva Convention 1973; and, in respect of hotels, the Paris Convention 1962. You can get copies of the relevant conventions if you ask us. For the avoidance of doubt, this means that we are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitations of compensation contained in any of these conventions or any other international conventions applicable to your Holiday.

(vii) You are obliged to assist us in recovering from any third party any sum which may compensate us for any sums we pay you. In particular, you are obliged to assign to us any rights that you may have against any other person whose acts or omissions have caused or contributed to our legal liability to pay you compensation. You must also provide us with all assistance we may reasonably require. Finally, you must follow the procedures for the notification of complaints set out in the clause below titled "If You Have A Complaint".

(viii) Should you become ill while on Holiday, you must, in addition to reporting your illness to our representative, local agent or Duty Office, consult a local doctor and also consult your GP upon your return to the UK. Should you then wish to make a claim against us as a result of that illness, you must provide us with details of both the local doctor whom you saw and your GP, together with written authority for us to obtain a medical report from both those doctors.

(ix) If you or any member of your party suffers during your Holiday any difficulty through misadventure as a result of any activity which does not form part of your contracted Holiday arrangements, we will offer you prompt assistance without undue delay. Such assistance may include providing appropriate information on health services, local authority and Consular services and assisting you in making communications and helping you to find alternative travel arrangements. If the difficulty is caused intentionally by you or as a result of your negligence, we may charge a reasonable fee for that assistance which will not exceed the actual cost incurred by us. All assistance (financial or otherwise) is subject to our reasonable discretion and a maximum total cost to ourselves of £ 1,000 per booking and is subject to you notifying us that you require such assistance within 30 days of the incident. If you are entitled to have any costs and expenses arising from such an incident met by or from any insurance policy or if you obtain a costs order against anyone in relation to the incident, you must repay to us the costs and expenses we spend in assisting you.

(x) Other than as set out above, and as is detailed elsewhere in these booking conditions, we shall have no legal liability whatsoever to you for any loss, damage, personal injury or death which you suffer arising directly or indirectly from any aspect of your Holiday. Nothing in these terms and conditions shall affect any statutory rights that you may have as a consumer in the jurisdiction applicable to the contract between us.

(xi) Where return transportation is included in your package and where it is impossible for you to return to your departure point on the agreed return date due to "unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances" we shall provide you with the necessary accommodation for a period not exceeding 3 nights per person. Where possible, this accommodation shall be of comparable standard to the accommodation booked by you under the Package. For the purposes of this clause, examples of "unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances" include warfare, acts of terrorism, significant risk to human health such as the outbreak of serious disease at the travel destination or natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes or weather conditions which make it impossible to travel safely to that destination.

(xii) The limitation of cost for 3 nights accommodation referred to above does not apply to persons with reduced mobility as defined by Article 2 of Regulation (EC) 1107/2006 and does not apply to persons of reduced mobility when travelling by air and any person accompanying them, pregnant women and unaccompanied minors, as well as persons in need of specific medical assistance, provided that you have notified us of their needs at least 48 hours prior to departure.

Conditions of Carriage and Important Notices

When you travel by air or by sea, your journey may be subject to certain international conventions such as the Warsaw Convention, Montreal Convention or Athens convention. You agree that the transport company's own Conditions of Carriage will apply to you on that journey. When arranging this transportation for you, we rely on the terms and conditions contained within these international conventions and those 'Conditions of Carriage'. You acknowledge that all of these terms and conditions form part of your contract with us as well as the transport company. You can ask us to provide you with a copy of any of the conditions applicable to your journey. These may limit or exclude liability, especially in respect of lost or delayed baggage.

Air Carriers are required to provide you a notice pursuant Article 6(1) of The Air Carrier Liability Regulations 2004. The notice is below and it complies with The Air Carrier Liability Regulations 2004. Approximate conversions from Special Drawing Rights (SDRs) to other currencies are provided as a guide only and will be subject to fluctuation. Please note that The Air Carrier Liability Regulations 2004 provides that this summary cannot be used as a basis for a claim for compensation, or as a basis to interpret the provisions of that Regulation or the Montreal Convention.

Air Carrier Liability for Passengers and Their Baggage

This information notice summarises the liability rules applied by air carriers as required by Community legislation and the Montreal Convention in relation to carriage to, from or within the Community.

Compensation in the Case of Death or Injury

There are no financial limits to our liability for passenger injury or death. For damages up to 113 100 SDRs (approximately EUR127 000 Euros/ £106 000) the air carrier cannot contest claims for compensation. Above that amount, the air carrier can defend itself against a claim by proving that it was not negligent or otherwise at fault.

Advance Payments

If a passenger is killed or injured, the air carrier must make an advance payment to cover immediate economic needs, within 15 days from the identification of the person entitled to compensation. In the event of death, this advance payment will be not less than 16 000 SDRs (approximately EUR18 000/ £15 000).

Passenger Delays

In the case of passenger delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all necessary measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. Where the Montreal Convention applies, the liability for passenger delay is limited to 4 694 SDRs (approximately EUR5 000/ £4 000).

Baggage delays

In case of baggage delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. The liability for baggage delay is limited to 1 131 SDRs (approximately EUR1 200/ £1 000).

Destruction, Loss, Damage or Delay To Baggage

The air carrier's liability for loss or damage to baggage, including damage caused by delay, is limited to 1 131 SDRs (approximately EUR1 200/ £1 000), unless the passenger proves that the damage resulted from an act or omission by the carrier or its agents, done with intent to cause damages or recklessly with knowledge that damage would probably result. The air carrier shall not be liable for damages caused by baggage delay if it proves that it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damages or it was impossible for it to take such measures. In the case of checked baggage, it is liable even if not at fault, unless the baggage was defective. In the case of unchecked baggage, the carrier is liable only if at fault.

Higher limits for baggage

A passenger can benefit from a higher liability limit by making a special declaration at the latest at check-in and by paying a supplementary fee.

Complaints on Baggage

If the baggage is damaged, delayed, lost or destroyed, the passenger must write and complain to the air carrier as soon as possible. In the case of damage to checked baggage, the passenger must write and complain within seven days, and in the case of delay within 21 days, in both cases from the date on which the baggage was placed at the passenger's disposal.

Liability of Contracting and Actual Carriers

If the air carrier actually performing the flight is not the same as the contracting air carrier, the passenger has the right to address a complaint or to make a claim for damages against either. If the name or code of an air carrier is indicated on the ticket for a particular flight that air carrier is the contracting air carrier for that flight.

Time Limit for Action

Any action in court to claim damages must be brought within 2 years from the date of arrival of the aircraft or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived.

Basis for the Information

The basis for the rules described above is the Montreal Convention of 29 May 1999, which is implemented in the Community by Regulation (EC) No 2027/97 (as amended by The Air Carrier Liability Regulations 2004 and national legislation of the Members States.

For claims made in jurisdictions where these provisions are not in force, the Warsaw convention of 1929 (and any amendments to it that may be applicable) may apply and may limit the liability of air carriers for death or personal injury and in respect of loss of or damage to baggage. Neither we nor any third party providing transportation shall be responsible for medicines, valuables such as camera, cash, jewellery etc., packed in checked-in baggage. Certain airlines offer a special insurance for objects that are especially liable to be stolen. In such cases, a special declaration should be made directly to the airline at the time of check-in. We will refer you to the document entitled "Conditions of Contract and other important notices" which you find in this link: <https://www.rsd-travel.co.uk/terms-of-transportation/>

Baggage

The amount of compensation we will pay for any loss or damage to luggage is limited in accordance with the conventions listed in the above section. For claims for missing or damaged baggage you must follow the rules on the back of your ticket or contained within the carrier's conditions of carriage. Please note time limits apply within which to notify us or the carrier and make a claim. We will not accept liability for high-value items which you should insure for the appropriate amount.

Your Responsibilities

We want all our customers to have an enjoyable, carefree holiday. But you must remember that you are responsible for your actions and the effect they may have on others. If we, or another person in authority, believe:

- your actions could upset, annoy or disturb other customers, our suppliers or our own staff, or put them in any risk or danger, or damage property; or
- you are unfit to travel;

we may end your Holiday and terminate your contract. You and your travelling party will be prevented from using your booked accommodation, flight, other transportation and any other travel arrangements forming part of your booking and we will not be liable for any refund, compensation or any other costs you have to pay. Alternatively at our discretion, you may be permitted to continue with your Holiday but may have additional terms of carriage imposed upon you. In addition to the above and the effect your actions may have on others, you must particularly also bear in mind that you are responsible for your safety, and that you are responsible for the condition of the property you occupy. We are not responsible for any accidents which occur in or around swimming pools due to your inappropriate or irresponsible behaviour, or for any accidents which occur anywhere on properties because of glass, china or the like which you have broken and/or have left in a way in which injury can result.

We expect that you will enjoy your Holiday with us. We appreciate that you may drink alcohol as part of your enjoyment. You must, however, do so responsibly and we will have no liability to you for any injury, loss or damage you suffer as a result of your judgment being impaired wholly or partly by alcohol.

We will hold you and the members of your travelling party jointly and individually liable for any damage to the accommodation, furniture, apparatus or other materials located within the accommodation, together with any legal costs we incur in pursuing a claim. It is your duty to report any breakages, defects or damage to an appropriate person immediately. If your behaviour or the behaviour of any members of your travelling party causes any aircraft or other form of transportation to be diverted we and/or the carrier will hold you and those members jointly and individually liable for all costs incurred as a result of that diversion. We cannot accept liability for the behaviour of others in your accommodation, flight or other transportation, or for any facilities/services withdrawn as a result of their action.

Passport, Visa, Documentation, Immigration and Health Requirements

The passport and visa requirements of yourself and your party, together with any other immigration requirements, are your responsibility and you should check these with the relevant embassies and/or consulates prior to travel. We do not accept any responsibility if you cannot travel if you have not complied with the relevant requirements in force prior to and at the time of travel.

It is also your responsibility to check all compulsory and recommended health requirements, including vaccinations, prior to travel and to ensure that you are in receipt of all and any necessary vaccination certificates and other health documentation. The costs of obtaining any such documentation are your responsibility and we are unable to accept any responsibility or liability if your travel arrangements are affected as a result of the failure to do so by yourself or any member of your party.

Information on foreign travel is provided and regularly updated by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office. Details can be found at www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice and www.gov.uk/knowbeforeyougo.

If You Have A Complaint

We aim to provide the best holiday possible. However, if you are not satisfied, please complain as soon as possible to the relevant person (for example, the accommodation management or transport supplier). If they cannot help, you must tell your Holiday Representative or our Local Agent and we will do everything reasonably possible to sort the problem out. If you are still not satisfied, ask your Holiday Representative for a Customer Relations Report Form. If you do not have the services of a Representative, or they are not available, you must contact our UK Duty Office (on the number shown on your travel documentation) straight away.

When you get back home, send a letter (and where possible, enclose your completed Customer Relations Report Form) to our offices in the UK within 28 days of returning home. If you have special needs that prevent you from writing to us then, where possible, we will accept details of your complaint over the telephone. For complaints arising from scheduled airlines, we will act as a liaison between you and the airline to try to assist in resolving the problem. If we cannot help and you wish to take matters further, you must contact the airline directly.

The address to send your completed form and letter to is:

Customer Relations Department,
Business Address: RSD Travel Ltd., 2nd Floor Suite, Cuttlemill Farmhouse, Cuttlemill Business Park, Watling Street, Towcester NN12 6LF, United Kingdom or email your complaint to: support@rsd-travel.co.uk

We would like to point out that failure to follow the above procedures during your Holiday, and/or failure to complain within 28 days of your return, may reduce or extinguish any rights you have to claim compensation from us, or from any relevant supplier. Any such rights will be reduced or extinguished if, had you followed the above procedures during your Holiday, you or we could have taken steps to reduce any loss or damage suffered or entirely prevented it from being suffered. It is difficult and sometimes impossible to properly investigate a complaint if we are not told about it reasonably quickly once your Holiday is over. Your right to claim compensation may also be reduced or extinguished, should any delay in your complaint being notified during or after your Holiday, prevent us from carrying out a proper investigation.

Please note that we offer an Alternative Dispute Resolution Service through our ABTA membership. Further information on the ABTA Code and Arbitration Scheme can be found at www.abta.com/consumerservices. The Scheme does not apply to claims for amounts greater than £5,000.00 per person and there is a limited £25,000.00 per booking form. The Scheme does not apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness, subject to a limit of £1,500.00 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

Data Protection

Please see our Privacy Notice which explains how we will process and use your personal data.

Your Financial Protection

We hold an Air Travel Organiser's Licence (ATOL) granted by the Civil Aviation Authority. Our ATOL number is 10396.

When you buy an ATOL protected flight or flight inclusive holiday from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong.

We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where neither we nor the supplier are able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable)

If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.
